Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.

Give Form W-4 to your employer.

Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Caution: To claim certain credits or deductions on your tax return, you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) are required to have a social security number valid for employment. See page 2 for more information.

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if you: are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2-4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3-4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than Step 2(b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, Step 2(b) is more accurate

Complete Steps 3-4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3-4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	(a) Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,200	3(a)	$
	(b) Multiply the number of other dependents by $500	3(b)	$
	Add the amounts from Steps 3(a) and 3(b), plus the amount for other credits. Enter the total here	3	$

Step 4: Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. Use the Deductions Worksheet on page 4 to determine the amount of deductions you may claim, which will reduce your withholding. (If you skip this line, your withholding will be based on the standard deduction.) Enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Exempt from withholding	I claim exemption from withholding for 2026, and I certify that I meet both of the conditions for exemption for 2026. See Exemption from withholding on page 2. I understand I will need to submit a new Form W-4 for 2027 <input type="checkbox"/>
-------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2026 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2025 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2026. You had no federal income tax liability in 2025 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2025 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2026 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions by checking the box in the Exempt from withholding section. Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2027.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount of tax withheld will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain credits. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4.

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 15, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2026 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for qualified tips, overtime compensation, and passenger vehicle loan interest; student loan interest; IRAs; and seniors. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain deductions. For additional eligibility requirements, see Pub. 501.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe when you file your tax return.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____

2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

Employee/Payee Instructions

Purpose: Complete Form W-4ME so your employer/payer can withhold the correct Maine income tax from your pay. Because your tax situation may change, you may want to recalculate your withholding each year.

Line 3. Select the marital status that applies to you. You must select the same marital status you selected on your federal Form W-4, except that married individuals have the option of withholding at the higher single rate. If you selected married filing separately on your federal Form W-4, you should select single. Nonresident aliens are required to check the single box regardless of actual marital status.

Line 4. If you qualify for one of the exemptions from Maine withholding listed on line 6, complete lines 1, 2, 3, and 6, and sign the form. Otherwise, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet on page 1. You may claim fewer allowances than you are entitled to, but you must file a Personal Withholding Allowance Variance Certificate to obtain permission from the State Tax Assessor if you want to claim more allowances than allowed on line E above.

Exemptions from Maine withholding:

Line 6a. You may check this box if you claimed an exemption from federal withholding by checking the box in the Exempt from withholding section on your federal Form W-4. Do not check this box if you want Maine income taxes withheld even though you are exempt from federal withholding.

Line 6b. You may check this box if you requested that no federal withholding be withheld from your payments by checking the box in the No withholding section on your federal Form W-4P. Do not check this box if you want Maine income taxes withheld even though you are exempt from federal withholding.

Line 6c. You may elect this exemption if you are a resident employee receiving wages and you meet both of the following conditions:

1. You had no Maine income tax liability last year, and
2. You reasonably expect to have no Maine income tax liability this year.

This exemption will expire at the end of the year and you must complete a new Form W-4ME for next year or you will be subject to Maine withholding at the maximum rate.

Line 6d. You may elect this exemption if you receive periodic retirement payments pursuant to Internal Revenue Code, Section 3405, you had no Maine income tax liability in the prior year, and you reasonably expect you will have no Maine income tax liability this year. This election will remain in effect until you complete a new Form W-4ME.

Line 6e. If you are the spouse of a member of the military, you may claim exemption from Maine withholding if you meet the following requirements:

1. Your spouse is a member of the military located in Maine in compliance with military orders.
2. You are in Maine solely to be with your spouse.
3. You and your spouse have the same domicile in a state other than Maine.
4. You attach a copy of your spouse's latest Leave and Earnings Statement reflecting an assignment location in Maine.
5. You present your military ID to your employer. The ID must identify you as a military spouse.

Your exemption will expire at the end of the calendar year during which you submit Form W-4ME claiming the exemption, at which time you must complete and submit a new Maine Form W-4ME for the new year.

Line 7. You may check this box if you meet all of the following requirements:

1. You are an enrolled member of the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, or the Mi'kmaq Nation ("tribal member");
2. You reside on land within the Houlton Band Trust Land, the Passamaquoddy Indian territory, Penobscot Indian territory, or the Mi'kmaq Nation Trust Land ("tribal land"). See 36 M.R.S. § 5102(5-A) for a definition of "tribal member residing on tribal land"; and
3. You earn wages, salaries, or other compensation derived from or connected with sources on tribal land in Maine (that is, wages, salaries, or other compensation for work performed on tribal land in Maine).

By checking the box on line 7 and signing Form W-4ME, you certify that you qualify for the exemption.

This exemption will remain in effect until you complete a new Form W-4ME. If your situation changes, and the exemption is no longer valid, you must provide a new Form W-4ME to your employer.

This exemption applies only to wages, salaries, or other compensation earned by a tribal member for work performed in Maine on tribal land. Thus, you must complete Form W-4ME, lines 1 through 5 to direct your employer/payer to withhold the correct Maine income tax from any compensation earned for work performed outside of tribal land.

Note: You may be subject to penalty if you do not have sufficient withholding to meet your Maine income tax liability.

Notice to Employers and Other Payers

Maine law requires employers and other persons to withhold money from certain payments, most commonly wages, retirement payments and gambling winnings, and remit to Maine Revenue Services for application against the Maine income tax liability of employees and other payees. The amount of withholding must be calculated according to the provisions of MRS Rule 803 (See maine.gov/revenue/rules) and must constitute a reasonable estimate of Maine income tax due on the receipt of the payment. Amounts withheld must be paid over to Maine Revenue Services on a periodic basis as provided by 36 M.R.S. Chapter 827 (§§ 5250 - 5255-B) and MRS Rule 803 (18-125 C.M.R., ch. 803).

Note: Do not reduce the amount of Maine withholding by any federal deduction amounts claimed on federal Form W-4, Step 4(b) or federal Form W-4P, Step 4(b) that were used to calculate federal income tax withholding. Currently, Maine does not conform to the federal deductions that may be used to reduce the required federal withholding amount. For more information on Maine withholding requirements, see instructions and MRS Rule 803 (Income Tax Withholding Reports and Payments). Watch for legislative updates by visiting legislature.maine.gov.

Employer/Payer Information for Completing Form W-4ME

An employer/payer is required to submit a copy of Form W-4ME, along with a copy of any supporting information provided by the employee/payee, to Maine Revenue Services if:

- A. The employer/payer is required to submit a copy of federal Form W-4 to the Internal Revenue Service either by written notice or by published guidance as required by federal regulation 26 CFR 31.3402(f)(2)-1(g); or
- B. An employee performing personal services in Maine furnishes a Form W-4ME to the employer containing a non-Maine address and, for any reason, claims no Maine income tax is to be withheld. This submission is not required if the employer reasonably expects that the employee will earn annual Maine-source income of less than $3,000 or if the employee is a nonresident working in Maine for no more than 12 days for the calendar year and is, therefore, exempt from Maine income tax withholding.

Submit copies of Form W-4ME directly to the MRS Withholding Unit separately from any other tax filing.

Employers/Payers must complete lines 8 through 11 only if required to submit a copy of Form W-4ME to Maine Revenue Services.

- ✓ Line 8 Enter employer/payer name and business address.
- ✓ Line 9 Enter employer/payer federal identification number (EIN and/or SSN).
- ✓ Line 10 Enter employer/payer contact person who can answer questions about withholding (i.e. human resources person, company officer, accountant, etc.).
- ✓ Line 11 Enter employer/payer contact person's phone number.

Important Information for Employers/Payers

Missing or invalid Forms W-4, W-4P or W-4ME. If any of the circumstances below occur, the employer or payer must withhold as if the employee or payee were single and claiming no allowances. Maine income tax must be withheld at this rate until such time that the employee or payee provides a valid Form W-4ME.

- (1) The employee/payee has not provided a valid, signed Form W-4ME;
- (2) The employee's/payee's Form W-4 or W-4P is determined to be invalid for purposes of federal withholding;
- (3) The Assessor notifies the employer/payer that the employee's/payee's Form W-4ME is invalid; or
- (4) The employee's/payee's Personal Withholding Allowance Variance Certificate has expired, a new variance certificate has not been approved and submitted to the employer/payer and the payee has not provided the payer with a valid Form W-4ME.

Exemptions from withholding Form W-4ME, lines 6 and 7. Generally, employers/payers must withhold from payments subject to Maine income tax unless an exemption is claimed on line 6 or 7.

Federal exemption from withholding (lines 6a and 6b). An employee/payee who is exempt from federal income tax withholding is also exempt from Maine income tax withholding. The employee/payee must check the applicable box on line 6. An employee/payee exempt from federal withholding that wants Maine withholding must leave line 6 blank. See the instructions for line 6d for recipients of periodic retirement payments who are exempt from federal income tax withholding.

Resident employee exemption from Maine withholding (line 6c). A resident employee who is subject to federal income tax withholding is exempt from Maine income tax withholding if the employee had no Maine tax liability for the prior year and expects to have no Maine tax liability for the current year. The exemption on line 6c expires at the end of each year. If the employee fails to submit a new Form W-4ME for the next calendar year, the employer must begin withholding at the single rate with no allowances.

Withholding from payments to nonresident employees. An employee who is exempt from Maine income tax because of the nontaxable thresholds applicable to nonresidents is not required to complete and submit Form W-4ME; however, an employee becomes subject to Maine income tax withholding immediately upon exceeding a threshold at any time during the year. Because all income earned in Maine is taxable by Maine once a threshold is exceeded, employers should work with affected employees to ensure that Maine withholding is adequate to cover Maine income tax liability for the year. This may require the employee submitting a new Form W-4ME with the employer.

Withholding exemption for periodic retirement payments (line 6d). Recipients of periodic retirement payments as defined by IRC § 3405 that are subject to federal income tax withholding are exempt from Maine income tax withholding if the recipient certifies (by checking the box on line 6d) that he or she had no Maine income tax liability for the prior year and expects to have no Maine income tax liability for the current year. The exemption remains in effect until the recipient submits an updated Form W-4ME.

Exemptions under the Military Spouse's Residency Relief Act (MSRRA). If the box on line 6e is checked, the employer must:

- (1) Ensure that a copy of the military member's Leave and Earnings Statement (LES) is attached, and verify that the assignment location entered on the LES is a location in Maine; and
- (2) Review the employee's military ID to ensure that the date on the ID is not more than four years prior to the date on the employee's Form W-4ME, and that the ID denotes the employee as a current military spouse.

An exemption claimed on line 6e expires at the end of the calendar year. If the employee does not submit a new Maine Form W-4ME, the employer must begin withholding for the first pay period in the following year at the maximum rate (single with one allowance).

See the employee instructions for line 6e above for more information about this exemption.

Withholding from payments to tribal members who reside and work on tribal lands (line 7). An employee is exempt from Maine income tax withholding on wages, salaries, or other compensation derived from or connected with sources on tribal land in Maine (that is, wages, salaries, or other compensation for work performed in Maine on tribal land) if the employee checks the box on line 7 and signs Form W-4ME certifying that they are an enrolled tribal member residing on tribal land in Maine. This exemption remains in effect until the recipient submits an updated Form W-4ME.

Employers must withhold from payments that do not meet the requirements of this exemption, such as wages, salaries, or other compensation earned by a tribal member residing on tribal land when the work is performed outside of tribal land.

See the employee instructions for line 7 above and 36 M.R.S. §§ 111(9), 111(10), 5102(5-A), 5122(2)(ZZ), and 5132 for more information about this exemption.

Welcome to Manpower!

This Training and Policy Handbook is here to help you understand your job and your responsibilities while working through Manpower. Please review this handbook and keep it for reference. If you have questions at any time, Manpower is here to help.

Assignments

When you accept a work experience assignment, your supervisor or Work Experience Coordinator will share important details so you know what to expect, including:

- Work location name and address
- Your schedule
- Who you report to and how to check in on your first day
- What tasks you will be doing
- What to wear and other important information

Manpower is Your Employer. Even though you may work at another company's location, you are still employed by Manpower. Please contact Manpower and your Work Experience Coordinator right away if:

- You are asked to do work that is very different from what you expected
- You feel unsafe or uncomfortable at work
- Your contact information or banking information changes
- You believe a Manpower policy is not being followed

Workplace Injuries or Incidents. Your safety is very important to us. If you are injured at work, please follow these steps right away:

- If the injury is life-threatening, call 911 immediately.
- Tell your supervisor immediately what happened and how you feel.
- Contact Manpower and your Work Experience Coordinator as soon as possible.
- A Manpower representative will ask questions to understand the situation.
- If medical care is needed, Manpower will explain where to go.
- You will be helped with completing an incident report.

We take your safety and well-being very seriously. Please inform Manpower any time you are injured, you experience a near-miss, you see unsafe work practices on the job, or you have any safety concerns whatsoever.

Time Reporting

We want to make sure you are paid correctly and on time, and we need your help to do that. You must report your work hours each week using the online system on a computer, tablet, smartphone, or call in your hours by phone. Instructions are provided separately. Please submit your time by Sunday at midnight each week. Submitting time late or submitting incorrect days or hours may delay your pay. If you are overpaid, the overpayment amount will be deducted from a future paycheck or may be repaid directly to Manpower.

Getting Paid

You are paid weekly based on the hours you work and report correctly. As your employer, Manpower will deduct the necessary FICA and Federal, State, and local (if applicable) taxes, as required by law. It is very important to let Manpower know right away if your address or banking information changes, so your pay is not delayed.

Direct Deposit puts your pay directly into your bank account. It is free, safe, and the fastest way to get paid.

PayCard is a debit card issued to you that allows you to access your pay at ATMs or stores. Note: Your PayCard relationship is with the card provider, not Manpower.

Paper checks are available in limited situations upon request, but Manpower is not responsible for delays due to USPS mail delivery.

Satisfaction

Job Satisfaction. Your feedback after an assignment is important to us. From time to time, you may be emailed a Manpower Associate Satisfaction Survey that asks you to rate your current and/or past assignments, job duties, and Manpower's service. We consider anything below a "9" or "10" rating to be an unsatisfactory rating. Remember that if, at any time, you have comments or concerns you would like addressed, please contact Manpower.

Benefits

Maine Earned Paid Leave (EPL). Manpower associates accrue 1 hour of Earned Paid Leave for every 40 hours worked, up to 40 hours in a calendar year. Your EPL used and available hours are tallied and printed on your pay statement. Our full policy can be found on Manpower's Associate Resource Hub: <https://www.manpowermaine.com/home/associates/> Password: mpbenefits

Maine Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML). Maine's Paid Family and Medical Leave law provide up to 12 weeks of paid leave for family leave, medical leave, safe leave or leave related to a family member's impending military deployment. PFML is designed to be taken at the same time as unpaid federal and state of Maine FMLA where applicable. You may use your accrued available MEPL to close the gap between the amount of your PFML benefit and your regularly scheduled wages. More information including the plan guide, eligibility, and enrollment details can be found on Manpower's Associate Resource Hub: <https://www.manpowermaine.com/home/associates/> Password: mpbenefits. A copy of the ME PFML law and formal interpretations may be found online at www.maine.gov/paidleave or by calling 207-623-7900.

Safety

Everyone plays a role in workplace safety. You are responsible for:

- Following safety rules and instructions
- Wearing required safety equipment
- Reporting unsafe conditions or concerns
- Only using equipment you were trained to use
- Asking questions if you are unsure or feel unsafe
- If you are ever asked to do something that feels unsafe, stop and contact your Work Experience Coordinator and Manpower right away.

Safety Training

Hazard Communication - Global Harmonization System (GHS). This Occupational Safety and Health standard is intended to address the classifying of potential hazards of chemicals and the proper communication of information concerning the hazards and protective measures to employees. Manpower provides you with an overview of the Hazard Communication requirements. You will receive specific chemical information and training at the job site. There are five major components to this OSHA standard:

1. Hazard Communication Written Program. Manpower's client is responsible for developing, maintaining, and implementing, a written hazard communication program for the workplace, this includes a list of hazardous chemicals present in the workplace, labeling of containers, safety data sheets and how the worksite will train all employees.
2. Chemical Inventory. Manpower's client is required to identify and maintain a list of hazardous chemicals in the workplace. This inventory is generally an electronic list of chemicals in the work environment. You, as a Manpower associate, have a right to review this inventory list. Ask your supervisor.
3. Labeling. Chemical manufacturers and importers are required to provide a label for each chemical that includes a harmonized signal word, pictogram and hazard statement for each hazard class and category. Never handle a container if you do not know what it contains.
4. Safety Data Sheet. Each worksite is required to maintain a safety data sheet for each hazardous chemical and make each one accessible to all Manpower associates. The safety data sheets have a specified 16-section format that must be completed by the manufacturer and accompany the shipment of the chemical to the client worksite.
5. MCEP Worksite Training. OSHA requires training be provided to all associates who will be working around or have the potential to be exposed to hazardous chemicals. Manpower's orientation includes training on the overview of the hazard communication standard, labeling requirements, and safety data sheets. If applicable, you should receive company specific hazard communication training upon your arrival at the work location.

Lifting. It is important for our associates to be aware of the basics of safe lifting to avoid injury. Follow the steps below:

1. Size up the load. Test the weight by moving one of the corners to determine if it is too awkward or heavy to lift alone. Get assistance from a co-worker or break down the load into smaller parts.
2. Make sure you can carry the load where you need to go before attempting to move it. Make sure your pathway is clear from obstruction.
3. Bend your knees. This is the single most important rule when lifting. Position your feet close to the load, center yourself over the load, bend your knees and get a good handle on the load, straighten your legs, and lift straight up. Allow your legs, not your back, to do the work. Do not twist; turn your whole body. When setting the load down, follow the same steps in reverse.
4. When moving product always push and do not pull where you are able, pushing places less stress on your back

Computer - Video Display Terminal (VDT). If your job is to work at a computer for more than four (4) consecutive hours each day, please review the following training.

Your workstation should be comfortable.

1. Your Chair: Height should be adjusted so feet rest flat on the floor or footrest. Arms should rest at a 90-degree angle to the keyboard. Backs of knees should not rest directly on the chair cushion. The lower back should be well supported.
2. The Screen: The top of the screen should be just below eye level, so the head remains neutral. The VDT screen should be at arm's length from the sitting position. Avoid glare by using a glare screen or by shielding windows.
3. Keyboard: Forearms should be parallel to the floor in an "L" shape. Wrists should be straight on the home row keys and in a relaxed and neutral position.
4. Work Surface: Wrists should not rest on the edge surface. Use a document holder to position the document at the same height and distance as the VDT screen.

Proper Posture is important.

1. Your Head: Keep your head in an upright position. Leaning forward or back could cause strain to your neck and shoulders. Having your computer screen and document at eye level will aid in keeping your head in the correct position.
2. Your Shoulders: Shoulder muscles work harder and are at higher stress levels when rounded forward. To lessen fatigue, allow for shoulders to drop to a relaxed position. If your shoulders feel raised, you may find your chair or keyboard is too high.
3. Your back: Leaning forward may feel more relaxing than sitting in an upright position, however, a forward lean adds strain to back muscles. You should be able to sit in your chair with your back against the backrest and work comfortably in an upright position.

Exercises and Stretches can help you stay healthy.

1. Neck Exercises: Tip your chin in and slowly roll chin across chest from shoulder to shoulder. With body facing forward, turn and look over each shoulder.
2. Back and Shoulders: Stand and lean back with your hands holding your lower back or hips. Hold for a few seconds. Hold your arms straight out in front of you and rotate your arms so the backs of your hands face each other, slowly rotate so that palms face each other. Bend from side to side with your arm raised over your head. Circle shoulders forward and then backward.
3. Hands and Wrists: While sitting or standing, drop your arms to your sides and shake your arms and hands for a few seconds. Spread your fingers wide and circle your wrists inward and then outward. Press your palms together as in a prayer position. Gently apply pressure by raising your elbows, then release.

Policies

In any job, it's important to understand the policies. Please review the policies presented here and indicate your understanding and acceptance of these policies by signing the acknowledgement.

Electronics & Mobile Device Policy. Personal phone use should be limited while working. Phones should only be used during breaks unless there is an emergency. If you are unsure what is allowed at your worksite, please ask your supervisor or Work Experience Coordinator. Not following this policy may lead to corrective action.

Drug and Alcohol Policy. Manpower is committed to providing and maintaining a healthy and safe workplace free from the effects of drugs, alcohol and other substances that impair an employee's ability to work safely and productively. Employees are prohibited from using or possessing alcohol and illegal drugs either at work or while working, including all forms of marijuana. For the purposes of this policy, illegal drugs are drugs that are illegal under either state or federal law.

Employees must report to work in a fit and safe condition and any employee who is impaired by alcohol or illegal drugs while working or at work may be disciplined, including the possibility of termination. A supervisor may determine that an employee is impaired by observing the employee's behavior. Examples of the symptoms of impairment include lack of coordination or balance, impact on the employee's eyes (e.g., red, bloodshot, dilated pupils, glassy, etc.), slurred speech, the odor of marijuana or alcohol, falling asleep, lack of focus and/or other unusual behavior. If impairment is demonstrated, appropriate action will be taken up to and including termination.

The legal use of prescription medications by an employee is permitted while working if it is done under the supervision and approval of a medical provider, and such use does not impair an employee's ability to perform the essential functions of the job in a safe manner. The use and possession of medical marijuana is not permitted while working.

Violence-Free and Harassment-Free Workplace. Manpower is strongly committed to providing a violence-free workplace and has adopted a zero-tolerance policy. Violence, threats of violence, or intimidation of Manpower staff or associates, vendors, or client employees will not be tolerated. Examples include, but are not limited to:

If you experience an actual or perceived threat of physical violence including intimidation, harassment, or coercion, immediately report the incident to your manager/supervisor and your Manpower Representative. In life-threatening or emergency situations, call 911.

Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN): 01-0354313

This notice is for employers who have a Private Plan Substitution. It explains your rights and responsibilities under the State of Maine's Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML) program. The law requires that we give this information to new employees in the first 30 days of employment.

Employee Contributions

This company has set up a private plan to meet our Maine PFML obligations. The law says that employers can deduct up to half of one percent (0.5%) of wages from each employee's paycheck to pay for this coverage (up to the same limit in place for Social Security deductions). The deduction will be reported on your pay stub.

Payroll withholdings for the PFML program begin on May 1, 2026, at a rate of 0.5% of wages.

Eligibility for Leave

Eligible employees may take up to 12 weeks per benefit year of paid leave under the Maine Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML) program to care for their own serious health condition, to care for a family member with a serious health condition, to bond with a new child, or for other qualifying reasons. The employer's private plan administrator will determine whether the employee meets the eligibility requirements in accordance with the approved plan policy.

Reasons for Leave

PFML benefits are available for the following situations.

- Medical Leave: For times when a serious health condition keeps you from working.
- Parental Leave: Time to bond with a child after birth, fostering or adoption.
- Family Care Leave: Time to care for a loved one with a serious health condition.
- Military Family Leave: Time to prepare for a family member's deployment.
- Safe Leave: Time to find safety after abuse or violence.

Rights & Protections:

Employees may take paid leave benefits if they meet Maine PFML eligibility requirements, even if they are new to a particular employer. Employers must maintain an employee's health insurance coverage during approved leave, including any employer contributions.

Job protection applies after 120 consecutive days of employment with the same employer. At that point, the employer must return the employee to the same or equivalent position with the same pay, benefits, and working conditions when the leave ends.

How to File a PFML Claim:

Your PFML coverage at Manpower of Maine (Maine Business Services, Inc.) is provided by MetLife. Policy number 5778909
